

1	accomplish (verb) to do something successfully you won't accomplish anything by arguing.
2	accurate (adjective) correct in all details We asked them to make an accurate copy of the plan. /ə'kʌmplɪʃ/ /ə'tʃi:v/ /'ækjʊrət/
3	achieve (verb) achievement (noun) To succeed in doing something after trying very hard. Have you achieved all your aims?
4	acquire (verb) to become the owner of something She has acquired a large collection of old books. /ə'kwaɪə/ /ə'dæpt/ /'æktʃuəli/
5	adapt (verb) adaptable (adjective) to change something to be suitable for a new situation to change your behaviour to fit into a new situation The car has been adapted for disabled drivers. We'll all have to learn to adapt to the new system.
6	actually (adverb) = really It looks quite small, but actually it is over 5 meters high. He said he was ill, but actually he wanted to go to the football match.
7	adventure (noun) a new, exciting and dangerous experience I must tell you about our adventures in the desert. /əd'ventʃə/
8	alcohol (noun) alcoholic (adjective) a substance in drinks such as beer or wine that can make people drunk They will not serve alcohol to anyone under the age of 18. /'ælkəhɒl/ /,ælkə'hɒlɪk/
9
10		